

Please do not preempt Indiana's law on telephone privacy. It keeps me from getting over 12 calls a week from solicitors. My life is more organized and sane since I was able to take advantage of state law. Now, my children and I get calls that are meaningful and important to us. Thank you.